

Islip, NY – Islip Town Supervisor Phil Nolan and Town Councilman Steve Flotteron recently attended the Eagle Court of Honor for James Montague, a resident of Great River. The service project in which James participated, along with his fellow Troop members, was the collection of children's books from Great River and East Islip community members to be used at Dotty's House, an emergency shelter for women and children in Suffolk County.

Pictured (left to right) are James Montague Sr.; Supervisor Nolan; James Montague Jr.; Councilman Flotteron; Kaitlyn Montague, James's sister; and Maureen Montague, James's mother.